ABOUT

James is a Principal with HERA Environmental. James has 30 years of experience with the Georgia EPD (the last 6 served as Manager of NOx Permitting Unit and 20 years prior as Manager of the VOC & Combustion Compliance Unit). During his tenure at EPD, his guidance was valued by some of the nation's leading industries as well as small operations seeking thoughtful insight regarding complex regulations. With James' background, he is ideal to help companies navigate the intricacies of federal, state and local government environmental regulations.
